A PARTING MESSAGE.

SIR JOHN FOWLER AND HIS TROOPS.

A Special Order of the Day, issued yesterday by Major-General Sir John Fowler, K.C.M.G., C.B., D.S.O., Commanding the Forces in China, reads:
Hongkong, Friday, Feb. 6, 1925.
On relinquishing this Command I most sincerely thank all ranks of my Headquarters Staff, Staff and Departments, and the Units in China under my Command for the cordial support they have given me.
The discipline and soldierly bearing of the troops has been good, and I feel confident that the prestige of the British Army has been maintained.
I also desire to thank the British Volunteer Corps in China for the valuable services they have and are rendering.
J. S. FOWLER, Major-General.

WISH WYNNE.

UNSTINTED 'PRESS' PRAISE.

Professional artists do not expect, nor do they usually get, the same unstinted praise from the various newspapers on their tour as is given to local artists. It is therefore a striking tribute to Miss Wish Wynne and her talented company to be able to record that on their present tour of the Far East not one discordant note has been struck by the Press critics. Each and all have willingly given generous notices. Thus, we find in a recent Shanghai paper, the "North China Daily News," this convincing verdict:

"It was an evening that audience and performers will remember for many a long day, and, I am sure, will look back to with pleasure."
Mr. Edgar Warwick is bringing Miss Wish Wynne and her company to the Star Theatre, Kowloon, where a short season will be opened on Tuesday next.
Seats ought to be booked tight away to avoid disappointment.

CANTON AFFAIRS.

AN ALLEGED PROSELYTE
MAKES TROUBLE.

SHOPS STILL CLOSED.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Canton, February 6.
Hsu Shung-ching, brother of General Hsu Shung-chi, who was once a staunch Christian, is now alleged to be strongly urging anti-Christianity.
Most of the shops in Canton have not resumed business after the New Year holidays. It is accordingly presumed that trouble is anticipated. Along the Bund many are now flying the five-barred national flag instead of the Revolutionary ensign.

RABIES.

BLACK CHOW DOG SHOT.

A black chow dog, believed to be suffering from rabies, was shot by Sanitary Inspector Strange at No. 297, Des Voeux Road Central, yesterday. So far no report has been received that any person was attacked by the animal.
Another dog, reported to belong to Mr. Ramsay, of No. 17, Pratt Building, was taken to Kennedy Town yesterday for observation.

New York, February 6.—Mr.
Rockefeller, junior, has donated $500,000 to the Construction Fund of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. The fund now totals over six and a half million dollars.
It will be the third largest cathedral in the world, the choir of which is already finished, and for which fifteen million dollars are wanted.
—Reuters's American Service.

STUFFY COLDS.

Mothers, why allow "stuffy" and stuffy wheezy breathing to distress your babies when quick relief follows the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It checks the development of a cold and contains no narcotics. It is good too for croup and whooping cough. Every mother is a friend. For sale everywhere.
